No. 8 - Will comply.

24 - Concur. This was original intention.

25a -

b - Do not concur. Problem had been previously discussed and it was concluded that the Office of Communications' Security Officer should continue to form physical security duties in addition to his other duties.

26 - Concur

25X1C4a / 27 - Action has been taken to reduce tour of duty in [REDACTED] to conform to other [REDACTED] hardship posts (tours will average 26 to 30 months).

25X1A9a / 28 - See [REDACTED] for history.

25X1A9a / 29 - Mr. [REDACTED] action.

25X1A6a / 33 - [REDACTED] was recognized as being undermanned and 15 additional ceiling positions were therefore requested and approved. Action is now being taken by operating divisions to fill these newly created vacancies. The deficiencies noted are not attributed to OC-A.

Note 5 41 ↓

- It is our understanding that it is CIA policy to remove personnel married to foreign nationals from sensitive positions. Virtually all Office of Communications personnel should have a cryptographic clearance since there are very few positions in the Office which can be isolated from this requirement, and personnel married to foreign nationals cannot be granted a cryptographic clearance.

{46 - DCSA now under review.
 {47 }

82 - Request for additional super-grades has been submitted to the Super-grade Review Board. Bulk of the offices has been granted as high as the Office of Personnel will permit. If inequity exist, action will be required on the part of the DD/S to so direct Office of Personnel and the Management Staff to permit equalization of grade structure.

{86 - Concur gradual shift in budgeting and finance responsibilities has been asked ~~MEET~~ between Policy & Plans and OC-A. I do not believe that PP Staff should be completely divorced from this phase of planning in Management.

(88 - No comment.
